Dear Al:

Reference is made to your letter SMC61-9005-190 dated 25 July 1961.

Approval is hereby granted to scrap material listed in Section III of the Residual Inventory Listing attached to referenced letter. An appropriate credit should be made to this contract and reflected in your final invoice and contract release. The auditor should review this transaction prior to your invoice submission.

All other items of residual inventory in Sections I and II are to be transferred to Contract No. ~~BB-500~~ and placed in a Government property bond room.

ITSK

Very truly yours,

Dear Sir:

Reference is made to your letter of 23 May 1961.

Approval is hereby granted to transfer all residual inventory and special tools, test equipment, etc., generated under Contract No. DD-300 to Contract No. DD-500, the Time and Material Contract. Accountability is to be maintained thereunder and right to use test equipment and tools under our other contracts is granted. Residual parts should be placed in a bond room since they are Government property. These parts can be used in the repair and overhaul of equipment or shipped to various Customers upon request.

Prior to actual transfer, it is requested that three (3) copies of the list of items to be transferred be sent to this office with a recommendation for transfer or scrapping of each item. In the event you wish to retain any items for your own use, please submit a quotation to purchase same.
